3rd Annual Pop-up Museum

It's time again to show off your items of historical curiosity. During our BBQ lunch we want to have a display of vintage items in the reference room. This year the theme is collections. So dust off your collectables and pick out one or two prized possessions worth bragging about and get ready to show them off. If you have any questions or need special accommodations, you can contact the Historical Society (805)735-4626.
