The Hi Restaurant Sign is an iconic landmark and it might have been demolished if it won't thanks to the city planning commission. They have been declared it the "#1

Landmark sign" of Lompoc. So the sign is saved! Well almost.

Presently The Lompoc Valley Historical Society is now the proud owner of the sign and is temporarily storing it while the sign awaits refurbishment. The sign needs to be cleaned, repaired, and probably a great deal of metal work done. Then all the electrical has to be removed and replaced. Electrical work is expensive!

Currently American Host is slated to display the sign in its parking lot, once refurbishment is completed. There may be costs in installing it there as well.
